

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Tuesday, Aug. 19

2003

Groundbreaking for security training building is Tuesday

A groundbreaking ceremony for the new security training building will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday on Centaur Street off the south end of Rideout Road. The building will be used by the Marshall Center Protective Services Department for training, preparedness, education and responsiveness to protect the Center work force and assets. The building also will be used for training by other federal agencies, as well as state and local law enforcement personnel.

Marshall welcomes U.S. Sen. Jeff Sessions

For Travel Manager assistance, call 544-4357, Option 0

Women's Equality Day program will be Aug. 26

The Women's Equality Day program will be at 10 a.m. Aug. 26 in the Bob Jones Auditorium at the Sparkman Center on Redstone Arsenal. Marta Brito Perez of the Office for Personnel Management will speak. The Marshall Center's Outstanding Women Achievers also will be recognized. This year they are Dawn C. Stanley in the Professional category; Ela M. Washington in the Administrative category; Barbara V. Thurman in the Clerical category; and Ann R. McNair as the Federal Women's Program Supervisor of the Year for 2003.

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>